Lynchburg, Va., July 28.—In a hard-hitting game, which was replete with brilliant fielding, Petersburg defeated Lynchburg 9 to 6 to-day. Umpire Henderson's work was as bad as ever seen seen here, and he contributed five runs and five hits to the visitors by two rank decisions. Stocksdale should have gone through without a run after he relieved Bruck in the third. The score:

Lynchburg.

Norfolk, Va., July 28.—Roanoke won a slow and featureless game from Norfolk to-day at Athletic Park 5 to 2.

Effird, the former Washington and Lee star, was in fine form, and kept his hits well scattered. Martin Walsh pitched fair ball, but the fielding behind him was ragged. Roanoke won a slow and featureless game from Norfolk to-day at Athletic Park 5 to 2.

while the Tars looked dangerous in only one inning. They scored two runs in the eighth with a double, a single and a muffed fly in centre field.

The first dual meet of the annual field day tournament of the Virginia League will be held to-morrow afternoon preceding the final game of the series. The winner will challenge Richmond. The score:

Darkness Ends Play.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lake Forest, Ill., July 28.—Darkness again put an end to play in the Western tennis tournament to-day, leaving the winner of one of the semi-sinal rounds in the men's singles in doubt. Waiter T. Hayes, of Chicago, and C. M. Bull, Jr., of New York, were still playing when dusk put an end to their game. At the time play stopped Bull had won two sets, 10-8 and 6-3, while Hayes had won one, 9-7, in the doubles finals, set for to-morrow afternoon, the winning pairs in sit the semi-sinals to-day were C. M. Bull and Harry Martin, of New York, who defeated James H. Winston and Hugh G. Whitehead, of Norfolk, Va, 3-6, 6-2, 6-3, and Jas H. Church and Dean Mathey, of Princeton, who beat

RECORD-BREAKING CROWD

First Game Went Eleven Innings, While Second Won in Eighth.

Philadelphia, July 28.—The largest crowd ever inside Shibe Park saw the home team win both games of a double-header from Detroit to-day, I to 0 and 6 to 5. The first contest was an eleven-inning pitchers' battle between Bender and Summers. Only one hit was made off Summers in the first nine innings, Cobb three times making wonderful running catches. Bender scored the only run on a base on balls, Lord's sacrifice and Collins's single.

The second game was decided in the cighth inning, when, with two men out, Murphy and McInnis each singled, and both scored when Jones muffed Lapp's fly. Score.
